

THE LODGE AT WOODLOCH ACHIEVES THE WITT CERTIFIED DESIGNATION, BECOMING ONE OF THE FIRST TO EARN THIS PRESTIGIOUS DISTINCTION

May 29, 2025, Hawley, PA -- The Lodge at Woodloch is proud to announce that it has been awarded the prestigious WITT Certified designation, recognizing its commitment to delivering exceptional wellness experiences for guests. As one of the first properties to earn this gold standard certification, The Lodge at Woodloch has joined an exclusive community of hospitality leaders dedicated to promoting well-being and authentic wellness travel.

“We are thrilled to be recognized as WITT Certified,” said John Moser, general manager of The Lodge at Woodloch. “This certification is a testament to our ongoing commitment to providing our guests with a sanctuary where they can relax, rejuvenate, and reconnect. We are honored to be part of a movement that elevates wellness standards in the hospitality industry.”

The WITT Certified seal is awarded to hotels and resorts that have scored well across five core pillars of wellness including healthy eating, holistic healing, access to nature, movement and local impact. The certification process evaluates properties on their ability to authentically deliver wellness experiences that positively impact guests' overall sense of wellbeing.

“We are excited to welcome The Lodge at Woodloch into the WITT Certified community,” said Robin Ruiz, Founder & CEO of WITT. “Their dedication to providing meaningful wellness experiences makes them a true leader in the industry, and we look forward to supporting them in promoting their new certification to wellness-minded travelers.
